14. "Their substance shall be wasted, and their cows and their oven shall be sold by the taxgatherer."

15. "And it shall come to pass in those days that they shall cry for relief and shall find none, yea, they shall long for the old law but it shall not be."

16. "For they have laughed us to scorn, yea, they have even abused the craft whereby we get out living."

17. "And this will we do—we will set up the image that was worshipped of old,

they who know not the law shall be made Judges thereof."

19. "And every man who hath a cause of offense against his brother shall come before this court and shall not, as in former times, give ten shekels of silver to the lawyer to plead his cause but the shall plead it himself and shall pravail.

Mrs. Scoville, a young Chicago widow, advertised for correspondence with a view to matrimony." Tom Moore, a waiter in a Deadwood Hotel, wrote to her. Many letters passed between them, they exchanged photographs and at length agreed to marry. The widow spent all her money in the purchase of a railroad ticket to Deadwood but Tom had told her that he was a prosperous landlord, and so she felt easy as to financial matters. On her arrival in Deadwood, he confessed that he was only a waiter. She broke off the engage

OFFICE DAILY INTELLIGENCER,
Tuesday, May 21.

Business was moderately active in some lines to-day, but the aggregate movement of merchandise was not very large. In grain prices are somewhat assier, and in produce the feeding is weak under large supplies of most of the leading staples. Groceries are steady, with a liberal movement. New Orleans molasses, while provisions are rather easy with a steady movement.
BEASS—There is a quiet market at steady and unchanged prices. We quote at $282 25 for prime white navy; other grades as to quality.
BUTTAR—There is a fair demand, but the supply is in excess of requirements even on choice grades, while any qualities below choice can hardly be sold at all. We quote strictly choice fresh roll and solid packed at 12/4s15c.

Activity continues to characterize our horse markets, limited only by a scant supply of stock. Pair prices prevail, and every good animal, finds a ready buyer. We may say that drivers, heavy draft, saddle, and street car horses "go off like hot cakes." There remained this morning a number of unsatisfied buyers on the market. On Pi(th street the sales of the past week number 510 head, at the following current rates, viz. Driving herses, $100a10; street car horses, $75a10; Southern chunks, $50a50.
